This is a fantastic venue! Really easy to get to using BART/so much good food nearby, comfortable seats that are tiered so you can see from every angle, pretty good acoustics, a pretty good number of bathrooms, good drinks and snacks available, friendly staff, and all sorts of great events - a really diverse lineup of great acts/performers/even classes. I wish I still lived in the Bay Area so I could go alllllll the time! I will be back as often as I can.

Comfortable seating, brilliant yearly calendar, and a little wine and snack bar to visit during intermission. I've only been once, but already have tickets for another show there. The best place for world, folk, Americana, etc in east bay!
